Congressman David Scott Hosted the 13th Congressional District Economic Recovery Exposition

May 29, 2009

The exposition brought together a diverse group of corporations, small businesses, non-profit organizations and government agencies to assist constituents survive in tough economic times. The event was held at the Georgia International Convention Center in College Park.

The participants were able to talk one-on-one with HUD approved housing counselors; learn more about transitioning careers, short-term training opportunities, starting small businesses, receive information on extended unemployment benefits and health benefits through the Economic Stimulus Package.
